

Anti- Bullying Policy for children

WEST TOWN LANE
ACADEMY

Spot it and stop it!

What is bullying?

The children at WTLA understand bullying is;

"being mean to someone lots of times on purpose. Sometimes it can be using words that hurt people's feelings or sometimes it's hitting them or kicking them. It happens when grown-ups aren't looking and it can also happen online."

The children at WTLA understand that bullying is not;

"falling out with your friend or not agreeing with what someone else has said"

Spot it and stop it!

What can we do?

If you are being bullied;

Tell them to stop if you can.

Tell them they are being unkind and how it makes you feel.

Ignore them and walk away.

Tell someone about it!

If you see someone being bullied;

Be an upstander!

Tell the bully to stop if you can.

Ask the child who is being bullied if they need help.

Tell someone about it!

Spot it and stop it!
